

Andrea L. Roark

Paralegal

andrea.roark@henlaw.com

Phone: 239-344-1360

Fax: 239-344-1564

Andrea “Ann” Roark has worked in the Collier and Lee County communities for over 20 years. As a paralegal in the Divorce, Marital & Family Law department, she enjoys interacting with clients and assisting them complete the voluminous and often complex documents needed in family law matters.

Ann loves being a champion for clients and is highly valued for her ability to shine a light during dark times. It brings her great fulfillment to see clients regain their self-confidence and self-esteem. What Ann enjoys most about her job, aside from working closely with clients, is taking pride in the great team of people she gets to work with.

Ann received her BS in Legal Studies from Hodges University. She is also Florida Registered and NALA Advanced Certified Paralegal and has achieved two out of four advanced certificates in family law. Ann has two stellar children, two adorable granddaughters, and is dog mom to a fabulous rescue Husky/Shepherd mix named Lacie.

Practice Areas

- Divorce, Marital & Family