Cynthia Kane, or Cindy as her colleagues know her, is a Florida Registered Paralegal in the Divorce, Marital and Family Law department. Clients know her as a great listener, and attorneys know they can rely on her to meet deadlines and manage voluminous case files. Cindy values the opportunity to help clients through difficult times in their lives. The great group of people in the Family Law Department are also part of what makes coming to work enjoyable for her.

Cindy has been in the legal field for twenty-two years. She obtained her Associate's Degree in Legal Assisting from Daytona Beach Community College. Cindy's experience is well-rounded and, aside from family law, has experience in criminal, personal injury, and general litigation work.

Cindy was born in Iowa but has resided in Florida for thirty-five years. Outside of the office, she looks forward to quality time with her family and fur babies.
