Edward is a Florida Bar Board Certified Real Estate Lawyer. He concentrates his practice in the area of real estate law, including commercial and residential development, acquisitions, finance, survey matters, title insurance and commercial leases. His experience includes representation of developers, builders, governmental agencies, lending institutions, non-profit corporations and national title insurance underwriters. Edward currently serves on the firm's Executive Committee and also contributes articles to the firm's blog, The Legal Scoop on Southwest Florida Real Estate.

Edward was the Valedictorian of his law class and served as Law Review Associate Editor. While in law school, Edward authored four publications involving constitutional rights, eminent domain and bankruptcy. He is a three-time recipient of West Publishing Outstanding Academic Achievement Award and received four American Jurisprudence Book Awards. Edward also served as a federal judicial intern and completed an internship with the Philadelphia District Attorney's Office.

Naples Illustrated also listed Edward as a "Top Lawyer" for his work in real estate law in 2018. He has also been recognized by Florida Super Lawyers® magazine as a "Rising Star" in the field of real estate law. While only 5% of lawyers in the entire State are named to Florida Super Lawyers®, no more than 2.5% are named to the Rising Stars list.

Edward is a native of Ohio and currently resides in Fort Myers. He enjoys skiing, golf, and hiking.
