Jennifer Siegal-Miller understands the sensitive and emotional nature of Divorce, Marital and Family Law. Since the inception of her career, she has been advocating and guiding her clients through the family law process, including dissolution of marriage (divorce), adoption, paternity, child support, and spousal support enforcement. Jennifer also has experience in appellate litigation.

Prior to joining Henderson Franklin, Jennifer practiced law in Naples, Florida, and New York, New York. In New York, she worked with a boutique Manhattan firm representing foster care agencies and adoptive families. In that role, Jennifer's primary area of focus was Termination of Parental Rights petitions and representing families in both private and state-subsidized adoptions. She also represented foster parents in proceedings and represented the firm's client agencies on appeal.

Jennifer received her B.A. in English from the University of Texas at Austin and her J.D. degree from the University of Denver College of Law. During her tenure at UT, she also attended the Boston University Study Abroad program in London. While at UT, Jennifer was a member of Sigma Delta Tau sorority and rowed for the Texas Crew team.
