Kaylee is an associate in the Real Estate and Land Use & Environmental Law departments in the firm's Fort Myers office. She focuses her practice in commercial and residential sales and leases, development, land use, and survey matters. Kaylee is admitted to practice in all Florida state courts.

While in law school, Kaylee was a member of the Phi Alpha Delta International Law Fraternity, served as an Associate Editor for the Journal of International Aging Law and Policy, and worked as an intern for the Legal Department of the St. Petersburg Police Department.

Kaylee was born and raised in Sebring, Florida, and graduated from Sebring High School. When not working, she enjoys running, playing with her dog, and visiting new places.

Professional and Civic Affiliations

Over the years, Kaylee has volunteered as a legal intern for Gulfcoast Legal Services in St. Petersburg and Sarasota, Florida. She also was a member of the Miracle League of Lake Placid, Florida, and was a member of the United Way of Highlands County Community Investment Team.
